

ARIAS•U.S. Code of Conduct – Canon III

January 1, 2019

COMPETENCE: Candidates for appointment as arbitrators should accurately represent their qualifications to serve.

COMMENTS:

1. Candidates should provide up-to-date information regarding their relevant training, education and experience to the appointing party (or parties if nominated or selected to serve as the umpire) to ensure that their qualifications satisfy the reasonable expectations of the party or parties.
2. Individuals who serve on arbitration panels have a responsibility to be familiar with the practices and procedures customarily used in arbitration that promote confidence in the fairness and efficiency of the process as an accessible forum to resolve industry disputes.
